Supervisors Meet

At a regular meeting on last Saturday the Board passed upon the following business:

The order entered by the Board of Supervisors on the 2d day of March last, appointing commissioners to locate a road from New Prospect church on the Bullpasture to the east foot of Jack mountain was enlarged so as to allow said commissioners to examine other routes other than the one specified.

The contract for the construction of section A of the location of the change in Monterey and Vanderpool road to 49 rods in length was awarded to W L Trimble at the price of $2.75 per rod. The road is to be made 16 feet wide including ditch.

Boyd Beverage, who contracted for the building of the road on what is known as the Wagoner hill, having completed the road and the same being approved by C T Fleisher, one of the commissioners appointed for the purpose, the contract price, $180.00, was allowed.

In Trouble Again

Charles Diggs and Will Pong, both colored, were arrested Wednesday morning upon a warrant sworn out by Crawford Lewis and arraigned before Justice Wilson's court at 2 o'clock. The charges against them were the usual disorder growing out of a spree.

Upon examination, it seemed from the evidence that Pong had just returned from Staunton with some liquor and a little gun. He, Diggs and Lewis imbibed and the two former got ugly, did some shooting, made some threats etc.

Pong was fined $25 on one charge and $1 on another, with costs in both.

Diggs was fined $5 and bound over to keep the peace in the penalty of $100. On motion of his attorney the case was carried to circuit court, Diggs giving bond for one hundred dollars for his appearance at court.

Lewis, the complainant, had also been too free in indulging his propensities and left $1.00 and cost with the State.

Both Diggs and Pong have had recent jail sentences and fines imposed. The former for abusing postmaster Slaven and wife, and which came near costing him his life. He was out on a peace bond.

Pong served a term in jail last fall for an assault upon Tom Tolway, if we mistake not, at McDowell.

Homer Gum

The friends of the family were grieved to learn of another affliction visited upon the home of Mr. Peter Gum in the death of his son, Homer, which occurred on Sunday night last.

He had been in bad health for a year or more, but the malady—Bright's disease—assumed a more serious form quite recently, resulting in his death as above stated.

Homer was born and reared at the old home near Meadow Dale, and was one of the youngest of a large family. His death, following so soon that of his brother Harper, is unusually sad, and much sympathy is felt for the stricken home.

The funeral services were conducted, Tuesday at 11:30, by Rev. W. S. Trimble, of the Presbyterian church, after which the remains were laid to rest in Green Hill cemetery.

Mr Paul Gum, an older brother who lives at Silverton, Colorado, reached here in time for the funeral. He had heard of Homer's illness but did not know of his death until reaching Monterey Monday evening.

Mrs. D. H. Peterson

Mrs. Patty Peterson, wife of David H. Peterson, was born Jan. 17, 1876, and died April 10, 1907, aged 31 years.

She was the daughter of T. H. and Margaret C. Slaven, the young est member of a large family.

At the age of 14 she was converted in a meeting in the M. E. Church, South, which church she joined, being a member thereof at the time of her death.

She was married to David H. Peterson Feb. 21, 1900.

Those of her immediate family who survive her, are her husband and three-year-old child, Charles, her father, T. H. Slaven, her brothers, Harry F., Thos. H. and Howard M., and her sisters, Mrs. L. A. Carichoff and Mrs. M. L. Ogilvie, all of this place, and Mrs. A. W. Reynolds and Miss May Slaven, of Princeton, W. Va.

Mrs. Peterson had been a sufferer for two years, having been confined to her bed several times by illness.

She has ever been a consistent member of the church and a loyal christian. Her scrupulous conscientiousness even in trifling things has been frequently remarked upon.

A life such as she lived need leave behind no verbal testimony of assured faith; it is the best testimony that can be given, notwithstanding the fact that she gave clear and definite expression to her assurance of salvation. She talked freely and calmly with her pastor as to her relation with her Lord, constantly saying that she had perfect peace.

Her faith went beyond the fact of her salvation; she had faith to believe that God would care for her boy and was content to leave him in His care.

During the last ten days, when it was patent to all who saw her, that she must soon pass away, her care and thoughtfulness for her family and friends evidenced again and again the unselfishness that has been a marked feature of her life.

At 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, surrounded by the members of her family, she fell on sleep.

The funeral service was held in the Methodist church on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A. A. W.

The County School Board will meet at Monterey on Tuesday, April 23, at 10:30 o'clock at the request of Circuit Examiner and Inspector, J. H. Thomas, who will be present.

Mr. Thomas will also address the teachers on the same day at 2 P. M., on a subject of much importance to them. It will be to the interest of every teacher in the county to attend this meeting. Others interested in the work of the schools are also invited to be present.

Jared L. Jones, Division Supt.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol relieves indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol for dyspepsia does not only relieve indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy helps all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Ball, of Ravenswood, W. Va., says: "I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in milk for baby."

Kodol Digests What You Eat.

Bottles only. Relieves indigestion, sour stomach, belching of gas, etc.
